

Building a Sustainable Community Series

Building a Sustainable Community Series

Loyola University Chicago is hosting a series of workshops for the Rogers Park and Edgewater neighborhoods to increase awareness on how to live more environmentally-friendly while (keeping warm and) saving money.

*Location: Simpson Multi-Purpose Room

6333 N. Winthrop Avenue (at the corner of Winthrop & Sheridan Rd.)

Tuesday, December 16th, 7:00-8:30 p.m.

“Home Energy: Cutting your Fuel Costs”

Saturday, January 17th, 10:00-12:00 p.m.

“Neighborhood Transportation Alternatives”

Tuesday, February 17th, 7:00-8:30 p.m.

“Recycling and Composting”

*Location: McCormick Lounge, Coffey Hall

1010 W. Sheridan Road

Saturday, March 21st, 10:00-12:00 p.m.

“Gardening and Greening”

*Sponsored by Loyola Univ. Chicago and the Edgewater Community Council

For more information call (773) 508-7450

or e-mail us at communityrelations@luc.edu

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

